

AIA
THE ASSOCIATION
OF INTERNATIONAL
ACCOUNTANTS

ACADEMIC

AIA Academic Membership is a unique category of membership, which entitles academics in the field of accounting access to the benefits and resources available through membership of a professional accountancy body.

ELIGIBILITY

Applications are invited from academics at universities and colleges, and members of accounting associations, holding positions at lecturer level or above, and who are involved in teaching, research, writing and consultancy. Non-academics may also be considered if they hold managerial or technical director positions.

As an Academic member you will receive a range of benefits, including:

International membership, designatory letters, membership certificate, 24 hour support via the AIA website, bi-monthly magazine – International Accountant, weekly accountancy e-news, technical e-publications, support, access to an international network of branches, CPD seminars, lectures and online learning, networking opportunities, special offers and discounts on a range of goods and services, range of quality AIA merchandise and much, much more...

RESOURCES

International Accountant – bi-monthly magazine, designed to convey news of accountancy innovations and developments, economic and management issues.

Continuing Professional Development – learning activities are provided by AIA in a range of formats including face-to-face events and online learning courses.

AIA Accountancy e-News – provides a comprehensive round-up of the week's events in the world of accounting, finance, business and economics direct to your desktop.

Designatory Letters – FAIA (Acad).

Website – a wealth of resources and information, which you can access.

